PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 30th January 1961

No. 11-Pres/61—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police.—

Name of the Officer and Rank

Shri Lakh Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police (Officiating), Mount Abu, Rajasthan

Statement of Services for which the Decoration has been Awarded

On the 26th September, 1960, Shri Lakh Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Mount Abu, Sirohi District, was camping at Magriwala, a village about 10 miles from Rahuwa in Rajasthan when he learnt through a member of the local gentry that the notorious dacoit Dhunk Singh and his gang had taken shelter in a cave on the top of a hill overlooking Rahuwa. From their vantage point which was hidden by thick scrub and trees restricting visibility to a little beyond 10 feet, the dacoits were able to oversee the countryside and detect anyone who might try to approach their hide-out. The dacoits had forced one of the local people under threat of his being shot to supply them with rations at three fixed places on the 26th, 27th and 28th September, 1960. Since the dacoits were known never to stay in one place for long Shri Lakh Singh did not have time to requisition a large force from police headquarters but collected 10 policemen from O. P. Jecranwala and requisitioned a jeep from a member of the local gentry.

Accompanied in the jeep by the person who was to supply the rations and the servant of the member of the local gentry, Shri Lakh Singh pinpointed the three places where the dacoits would collect their rations and calculated where they would do this on the 28th September.

On the 27th, Shri Lakh Singh directed his force of police to reach, under cover of darkness, a place a mile distant from the scene of the likely encounter. On the 28th, he joined them at 2.00 a.m. and led his force through the dense jungle to their rendezvous with the dacoits. Owing to the difficulty of the terrain, this journey of only a mile took the party some three hours. Shri Lakh Singh then detailed four men to watch the main cave and proceeded with the remainder of his party to the point where he expected the dacoits to be. One of the dacoits, Riddalsingh, spotted the police and fired a shot at Shri Lakh Singh but fortunately missed him. Shri Lakh Singh returned the fire and shot Riddalsingh dead. Dhunk Singh, the leader of the gang then fired at Shri Lakh Singh, the bullet missing him by inches. Thinking he had shot Shri Lakh Singh dead, Dhunk Singh exposed himself and tried to see where he was, whereupon Shri Lakh Singh fired at the dacoit and shot him dead.

After killing these two dacoits, the police party proceeded to the main hide-out, a cave some 30 feet deep surrounded by rocks and dense undergrowth. The entrance to the cave itself was blocked by a large rock making it impossible for anyone to enter except by crawling on all fours. Taking with him a few members of his party, Shri Lakh Singh ordered the remainder to give him covering fire, and then advanced to the rock that barred the entrance to the cave. On reaching it he and his party fired a burst into the cave and succeeded in killing the third dacoit, Dhuka.

In this dangerous but successful encounter with a gang of notorious dacoits, Shri Lakh Singh showed exceptional courage, leadership and devotion to duty of a very high order at great risk to his own life.

2 This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 12-Pres/61—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Mysore Police.—

Name of the Officer and Rank

Shri Ramaiah, Police Constable No. 1282, District Armed Reserve, Shimoga, Mysore

Statement of Services for which the Decoration has been Awarded

On the 10th March, 1960, the Superintendent of Police, Shimoga, held a preliminary departmental enquiry into the conduct of Shri Chella Perumal, Traffic Sub-Inspector, during his charge of Sorab Kasba Police Station. Finding a prima facie case against the Sub-Inspector, the Superintendent of Police ordered his suspension pending a detailed enquiry. Police Inspector Syed Manju of Sorab Taluk was a witness in the departmental enquiry. Whilst the preliminary enquiry was in progress, the District Educational Officer, Shimoga, came into the room of the Superintendent of Police to consult him on some legal matter. Sub-Inspector Chella Perumal and Police Inspector Shri Syed Manju thereupon came out of the Superintendent's room and waited to be called in again by him. Sub-Inspector Chella Perumal suddenly left the place on his bicycle and returned after a time with a loaded .38 service revolver. Entering the premises of the District Police Office he shot dead Inspector Syed Manju who was standing in front of the Office of the Superintendent of Police and then rushed towards the Superintendent's room. Constable Ramalah of the District Armed Reserve Police, Shimoga, realising the murderous intentions of Sub-Inspector Chella Perumal and unmindful of the risk to his own life accosted the Sub-Inspector and held on to him by his belt. In order to extricate himself from the grasp of Constable Ramalah, Sub-Inspector Chella Perumal shot at him wounding him in the chest and then breaking free rushed into the room of the Superintendent of Police and shot him dead. He then fired at the District Educational Officer but fortunately missed him.

In trying to prevent a senior officer from committing the crimes which he did, Constable Ramalah, who was unarmed, showed exceptional courage, presence of mind and devotion to duty of a very high order at great personal risk.

2 This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 25th January 1961

No. WB-5 (3)/61.—The Central Wage Board for the jute industry, set up by the Government of India by their Resolution No. WB-5(1)/60, dated the 25th August, 1960, has considered the demands of labour in respect of interim relief, as required in para 5 of the said Resolution. The Board has come to a unanimous decision regarding interim relief and its recommendation on the subject is appended herewith.

2. The Government of India have accepted the Board's recommendation and decided to request the jute mills to implement the same as soon as possible.

APPENDIX

Recommendation of the Jute Wage Board for grant of Interim Relief

1. Every worker—whether permanent, temporary or badli—shall be paid interim relief at the rate of Rs. 2.85 per month from 1st October 1960 to 31st December 1960, and at the rate of Rs. 3.42 from 1st January 1961.

2. The arrears of interim relief from 1st October 1960 to 31st December 1960 will be paid to the respective workers on or before 15th February 1961.
3. The amount of interim relief from 1st January 1961 onwards will be paid each month in one lump sum on the first pay day of the next month.
4. In case of workers who did not or do not work for the entire month, or for calculating wages due for any broken part of a month e.g., by going on leave or sick leave etc., the amount of interim relief payable to them will be worked out on the same principles as govern dearness allowance.
5. The amount of interim relief shall be paid as a separate item till the final award of the wage Board and would be adjusted according to that award.
6. The above recommendations apply to all Jute Mills in all parts of India, except that the Katihar Jute Mill will pay interim relief at the rate of Rs. 3.42 with effect from 1st September 1961.

P. M. MENON, Secy.
